

Robert A Bonfiglio

BEDFORD, NH

CFP®, MBA, ChFC®, Financial Advisor

Bob has integrated eight new practice purchases and more than doubled the staff in his office — while reducing the number of hours he works. He's established many center of influence (COI) relationships that provide referrals regularly and doubled organic client acquisition. These strategic moves have landed him on the Barron's Top 1,200 list from 2014 to 2017, and he is ranked as a top advisor in New Hampshire. He also serves as a coach with Dynamic Directions.

ADVISOR A PAINS/CHALLENGES

Health concern

One year prior to retirement:

- Sent letter to clients announcing that Bob was his succession plan
- Buy Sell in Place

Taxation of practice

- Spread consulting portion of payment over 2 years

ADVISOR B PAINS/CHALLENGES

Concerned about future of staff

- One licensed staff member came over to Bob's practice. Promoted to advisor and lead servicing advisor on 40 clients.
- One who Bob did not need: He found another practice for her to work in (win/win)
